

NORTH SHORE CRICKET CLUB

North Shore Cricket Club Newsletter Edition 1, season 2007/2008

Latest news:

Last round saw some marvellous performances from those fortunate enough to get a game. Whilst the rain has played havoc on many recent matches, the North Shore spirit couldn't be dampened. Round 7 saw 4 wins from 4 matches with A-res and B2 being washed out. A great effort from all the guys.

Highlights from round 7:

Julian Poulter: 70 v Mosman (A Grade)
Tim O'Brien: 45 & 3 wickets v Mosman (A Grade)
David Waterhouse: 50 v Lindfield (C Grade)
Michael Bromley: 58 & 3 wickets v Wanderers (B-res)
Michael Thompson: 51 v Wanderers (B-res)
Keith Seghers: 4/12 v the Bears (B grade)
The rain: outright victory in A-res & B2 grades

Michael Thompson

As it stands:

Grade	Overall	One day
A	3 rd	1 st
A-reserve	6 th	4 th
B	4 th	1 st
B-reserve	6 th	7 th
B2	6 th	7 th
C1 day	3 rd	-
Club championship	9 th	-

As we approach the half-way point, A grade, B grade and C grade are all well poised with the remaining sides still working hard to climb the ladders.

A-reserve, B-reserve and B2 are only a win or two away from the four. If the rain holds off the next few weekends they'll get their chance.

Up and coming events:

On Saturday 22 December 07 there will be an after match function at the Union Hotel. All players need to make their way to the upstairs area of the Union aftermatch for some food and to relive the glory of the day that was (or just drink plenty of the amber ale!). We are hoping for HUGE turnout on the night so be there! Benno will be dancing the Lambada and Compo has expressed his desires to sing Blue Hawaii with his new coconut outfit at the close of the evening. Wow!

Training:

Have you seen Artarmon Oval lately?

No, not many have. We urge all of you to get down to training at least once a week to Artarmon Oval. The sessions are now being co-ordinated by Peggy, Benno, Paul Riddett and Hoges. The touch footy are taking a break over xmas and new year so we don't have to worry about hurting them. Plus, there is more space for fielding.

When: Tuesday & Thursday 6pm – 8pm

Where: Artarmon Oval, Burra Road

Why: To hone those skills, help your mates and because you love cricket! (don't you?)

Boring but very important:

Make sure you email all your unavailabilities to Peter Davis (not that you should have many). There is a link on the club's website at:

You can also see the club look-alikes and get plenty of North Shore CC info here.
